

Visitors can also dine at the various on-site restaurants and cafes throughout the long weekend, enjoying a range of hot and cold seafood delicacies.

When planning a Good Friday visit, customers are encouraged to keep an eye on Sydney Fish Market's website and social media accounts for updates and information.

